It is appointed that Gerrit Smith has pub It is agreened that Gerrit Smith has pub-lished an argument to prove that Chief Justice Chase has the right to give the easting vote in case of a tie, as to the guilt or innocease of President Johnson. If Mr. Smith has done so foolish a thing as this, he must be insace again. It takes a two-third vote to sonvict the President; anything short of that, and he is aquitted. There can, therefore, he no such thing as a casting vote upon the question. It is appointed that Senator Grimes has re-

It is supported that Senator Grimes has re-ceived threatening letters telling him that if he votes for the acquiritation the President that he will be assassinated. These tireats are becoming quite fashinnable, but they need alarm sobody, as the villains who stab in the dark never give any saring to their victims. Cowards threaten, but blood-thirsty men, who determine on assassination, never. The LLINGS PAPERS and the Hillinois people do not seem to resolve Senator Natus' promises to reform with very much faith or satisfac-tion. They still distrust him. This may be charitable and wise, but we don't see it. Not such is the living rule of forgiveness.
